HUGUARD UltraFit 3M Ansell dove® mallcom

About us ...

Founded in 1960 under the name "Fireco" and later rebranded as "Firematic," our company is a family-owned business built on a legacy of safety.

Now in our third generation, we have inherited a deep-rooted passion for protecting lives. We provide a comprehensive range of safety solutions—including Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), firefighting systems, and technical training—to support our valued clients.

We are committed to serving the local market, ensuring institutional security and making sure every single worker returns home safely to their families and loved ones.

mission...

We strive to protect lives and property by providing high-quality safety products and professional training. We are committed to building long-term partnerships that place the safety and well-being of your workforce at the forefront of our priorities.

Vision...

To be your primary and trusted reference for occupational safety equipment, providing comprehensive solutions that protect your people and assets.

Everything you need in one place... for you and your team's safety.
